ErgoSCAPE Laboratory

- The ErgoSCAPE laboratory is equipped with facilities to study how humans relate to the world around them.
- Improving performance, productivity, safety and comfort both at work and at play.
- Understanding of the capabilities and limitations of human functions is applied to the design of workplaces to improve interactions between man and machine.